

A Way Through

Words and Music © 1981 by Jamie McElman,
Mountain Rise Music, All Rights Reserved

Once alone – now you're lonely
And quite aware there's a difference 'tween the two Points of view
And you can't help but feel it
Seems there's no more denying it
When it finally comes to call (2x).

The unsung hero
The underdog
What a gracious loser you are
Can you still see your way through?
See your way through.

Once bold – now you're careful
One too many times
You've been cut down in your prime
Frame of mind
And there's no quick recovery
See, there's no easy comeback
Once you take it to the heart (2x).

The unseen stranger
The pirate thief
What a vicious circle this is
Can you still clear a way through?
Clear a way through.