

Friend Of Mine

Words and Music © 1980 by Jamie McElman,
Mountain Rise Music, All Rights Reserved

Tell me something now, my friend
Before you head down the road
Do we ride together?
Or is this another story left untold?
Well I can't see what lies before
It's not the first time
Hey, and I get cold in the black of night
But you're a friend of mine
Friend of mine.

An' if you ride, well we ride together
See, that's the first rule that we ever made
Can't stop thinking as one now
It's like leaving the song unplayed.
The power - I see it in our hands
Ah, don't let it fade away
Yeah, and I'm not ready to make my last stand
We'd better leave today
Come on now, friend of mine.

So many paths we crossed
Before people told us that we went astray
They can't understand our lives now
And old ties have begun to fray
So, turn to the silent, giving lands
Ah, there's nothing in our way
And the wind still blows, takes the tracks from the snow
That we left yesterday.

And the wind still blows, takes the tracks from the snow
That we left yesterday.