

Radiate

You can run if you have to
Everyday
And think you're solving your problems that way
You can smile 'til the laughter
Fades away
Still it's your mirror you look in each day.

There's more to life than just waiting
For years as the sun goes down
Perhaps your dreams need updating.

~Chorus~

Radiate
Whatever you want out of this life
Radiate
Brighter days – you'll dig the change
When you radiate.

The weight you're dragging behind you
Break away
And set it all curbside today
Your past, it needn't define you
Anyway
Give the law of attraction its day

Everything is vibration
Give it a shot and you'll come 'round
You might like the sensation

~cho~

~Bridge~

When you shine so brilliantly
You elevate your frequency
Transmitting energy
To the distant galaxies
Yeah, you can do it endlessly
Seems pretty clear to me.
