

Better Now

You thought you wouldn't make it
But here you are
You took the road not taken
And you travelled far
A life of broken pieces
And broken hearts
In time the memory eases (The memory releases)
Or you're torn (it tears) apart.

Sometimes silence is your only friend
Take this moment
Forgive yourself
Start again.

(Chorus)
Better now
It's time you learned to live
Better now
There's so much more than this
Better now
Just better now.

This world has left you shaken
But here you are
You healed, and you awakened
Yeah, you bear the scars
But sorrow's not a medal
One to proudly wear
Feed it at your peril
It aims to keep you there.

Sometimes silence is your only friend
Light the shadows
Free yourself
Start again.

(Chorus)
Happy now...

The morning brings the sunrise
And here you are Alive and bathed in sunlight
Your morning star
And suddenly you see it
Your stars align
Life as you conceive it
The grand design.

Sometimes silence is your only friend
State your intention:
Be yourself
Once again.

(Chorus)
Grateful now...
