The witching hour
You got someplace that you gotta be
Winding down
Alone with a book and your need to be free.

The witching hour
The end of the day when it all rolls away
No more talking now
What's done is done and your spirit's at play.

Well, whatever it is that you see
In reflections ago, as you knew life to be
Don't retreat to the past
'Cause there's nothing that you need
Let it be. (2x)

The witching hour
The world is asleep and your conscious unwinds
And if you allow
There's energy flowing to you from across the divide.

The witching hour
When you sense the magic like sparks in the air
An' you've come so far
This moment, this power, this vision, this prayer.

Well, whatever it is that you believe
About your life on this earth
An' where you go when you leave
Take this time to reflect
There is wisdom to receive
Let it be. (2x)

Well, whatever it is that sets you free
When your world is at peace
And there's no one else to please
Does a smile part your lips
And do you ever think of me?
Let it be. (2x)
