

Enjoy the Ride

I've been watching the sky
Tracing the arc of the sun
Tiny planet, spinning in space
Onward through the seasons we run.

I've been waiting for signs
Sifting the sounds on the wind
Mostly rumors, the blind leading blind
Patience will reveal the divine.

(Chorus)

We're connected to everything
It's elemental
So, dig it and join the tribe
And how you feel about everything (your reaction to everything)
It's consequential
So, you might as well enjoy the ride.

I've been sowing the fields
Tending to life's grand design
I'm not crazy, I'm just tuning in Grateful for these blessings of mine.

I've been out in the pines
Each day a breath at a time
What's the hurry, we're here for the ride
Join me in the passenger side.

(Chorus)

No one gets out of this life alive
It's monumental
So, you might as well enjoy the ride.
